

Wherever you live in the world, there are lots of things we can all do to help the Sumatran rainforest. A lot of little changes add up to a big difference. Colour in the activities on the tree and try them out at home.

ON THE NET

Save paper by sending e-cards for birthdays and Christmas

Recycle old clothes, shoes, cds and books.

Your unwanted stuff can be resold by charity shops to raise money for good causes and reduce waste

Recycle stuff

glass bottles and jars

plastic bottles

paper

tin cans

Use rechargeable batteries

Don't buy wood that comes from the rainforests

Keep your favourite bag folded in your pocket

Try to use your library instead of buying books

Teachers can join in too!

Have a Wear Orange Clothes to School Day to help raise money

Ask if the paper you use at school could be recycled

SHOPPING

When you're shopping try to reuse bags. Every bag you throw away is buried in the ground and can stay there for hundreds of years

Ask at school if you could leave a collection box for spare change

HOME SWEET HOME

Turn the tap off whilst brushing your teeth to save water

Use short flushes on the toilet!

Take a shower instead of a bath

Switch off computers, TVs and phone chargers at the wall when they are not being used as they use up lots of electricity on standby

Walk to school - the world will seem more interesting

or

Ask if you can have an orangutan assembly and let the whole school know about their plight

TAKE THE BUS

AT SCHOOL

Walk to school - the world will seem more interesting

or

Ask if you can have an orangutan assembly and let the whole school know about their plight

TAKE THE BUS